2015-16

Established new career-highs in assists (834), rebounds (626) and steals (163). Recorded 18 triple-doubles incuding 54 double-doubles. His 18 triple-doubles are tied for the most in one season since 1981-82 when Magic Johnson also recorded 18. OKC was 18-0 when he recorded a triple-double - the longest winning streak by a player in games in which he had a triple-double in a single season in NBA history and the longest such streak overall since the Lakers won 24 consecutive games when Magic Johnson had a triple-double from Nov. 1984 to Nov. 1987. Recorded a triple-double by halftime vs. LAL (4/11), becoming the first player since Kevin Johnson in 1997 to register one in the first half. It marked the second time in his career that he has recorded a triple double in less than 24 minutes. His seven triple-doubles in the month of March matches Michael Jordan (April 1989) for the most triple-doubles in a calendar month in the past 40 years and helped propel Westbrook to earn Western Conference Player of the Month honors for the second time this season. Voted a starter for the 2016 NBA All-Star Game and totaled 31 points, eight rebounds and five assists in the West's 196-173 win. Pulled down a career-high 19 rebounds vs. Orlando (2/3), joining Jason Kidd as the only two guards with a 19 rebound game in the last 25 NBA seasons. Named Western Conference Player of the Month for December alongside teammate Kevin Durant after averaging 23.8 points, 8.9 assists, 5.9 rebounds and a league-best 2.73 steals while tallying three 30-point games and seven double-digit assist contests. After talling 121 points and 37 assists in his first week of the season, became the first player with at least 120 points and 35 assists through four games since Nate Archibald in 1972. Totaled 48 points, 11 rebounds and 8 assists at Orlando (10/30) alongside 43 points from Kevin Durant. The duo has scored 40-plus points in the same game on three occasions throughout their careers, the most by any two teammates in NBA history. Scored 40-plus points four times. Scored 30-plus points 13 times. Scored 20-plus points 58 times. Scored in double figures in 77 games. Forty-eight games of double-digit assists. Twenty-four games of double-digit rebounds. Fifty-four double-doubles. DNP – Rest twice. During the he opened three Russell's Reading Rooms in Oklahoma City bringing his grand total to eight. In March, hosted his 6th annual Why Not? Foundation Bowl. In December, hosted 65 homeless children at his 4th Annual Christmas Party at City Rescue Mission, giving away new shoes and backpacks. For Thanksgiving, Westbrook hosted his annual Thanksgiving Dinner at the Boys and Girls Club in Oklahoma City.

NBA CAREER

2014-15: Led the NBA in scoring with an average of 28.1 points and ranked second in steals (2.1) and fourth in assists (8.6). Named to the Western Conference All-Star team for the fourth time. Named the 2015 Kia All-Star MVP after leading the West to a 163-158 win on 41 points, five rebounds and three steals in 26 minutes at Madison Square Garden. Joined Wilt Chamberlain and Michael Jordan as the only three players to score 40 or more points in an NBA All-Star Game, finishing one point shy of Chamberlain's ASG scoring record of 42 points. Named Western Conference Player of Month for April after averaging 32.5 points, 8.0 rebounds, 8.1 assists and 1.63 steals in. Earned Western Conference Player of the Month for March after averaging an NBA-high 30.9 points while ranking second in assists (10.20) and steals (2.5) and totaling four triple-doubles. Named Western Conference Player of the Month for February after averaging 31.2 points, 9.1 rebounds and 10.3 assists, joining Oscar Robertson as the only two players in NBA history to average 30 points, 10 assists and eight rebounds in a calendar month. Scored 20-plus points in a career-best 15 consecutive games (11/28-12/26). Recorded 20-plus points, 5-plus rebounds and 5-plus assists in a career-best nine consecutive games (11/28-12/16). Opened the 2014-15 season with a 38-point performance at Portland (10/29) which represented the second-most points for a Thunder player on opening night in the OKC era. Scored a then-career-high-tying 45 points on a career-best 18 made field goals (31 attempts) alongside six rebounds and six assists in a win at New Orleans (2/4). With that performance, he became the first player in the 2014-15 season to post 40-plus points, five-plus rebounds and five-plus assists. Became the fourth player in NBA history with at least 45 points, five rebounds and five assists in back-to-back games (joins Kobe Bryant, Wilt Chamberlain and Elgin Baylor) with performances on 2/4 and 2/6, both against New Orleans. Recorded 21 points, a career-high 17 assists and eight rebounds in just 27 minutes vs. Denver (2/22), joining Magic Johnson as the only two players in NBA history to finish with 20-plus points, 15-plus assists and five-plus rebounds in under 30 minutes played. Recorded his third triple-double of the season with 20 points, 11 rebounds and 10 assists in 28 minutes on vs. Indiana (2/24), becoming the fourth player (Larry Bird, Magic Johnson, Fat Lever) in the shot clock era to produce a triple-double in under 30 minutes played on three occasions. Used a career-high 49 points and 15 rebounds along with 10 assists to become the first player since Michael Jordan to four straight triple-doubles vs. Philadelphia (3/4). His 49 points marked the most in a triple-double performance in the past 30 years (tied with Larry Bird). First player in Thunder history to score 40-plus points in three

BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Sam Presti enters his 10th season with the Oklahoma City Thunder after being named the 11th General Manager in club history on June 7, 2007. A year into his tenure with the Thunder, Presti was promoted to Executive Vice President and General Manager by Professional Basketball Club Chairman, Clayton Bennett.

During his nine seasons with the Thunder, Presti has worked diligently to assemble the building blocks for long term success both on and off the court. Dating back to the start of the 2009-10 season, Presti and his staff have watched the Thunder amass the second best record in the NBA (.665; 371-187) during this span (behind only San Antonio).

With Presti at the helm, the Thunder has captured five Northwest Division Championships and has finished the regular season with a winning percentage of .610 (equivalent to 50 wins) in six of the last seven seasons. Additionally, the Thunder has finished with a top five record in four of the last five seasons.

Presti's consistent focus has been to utilize the NBA Draft to establish the foundation for sustained success on the floor and in the community. He selected Russell Westbrook with the 4th overall in the 2008 draft. Westbrook has since become a five-time All-Star, and this past year became the first player to win back-to-back All-Star MVP awards since Bob Pettit in 1958 and 1959. Meanwhile, Steven Adams was named to the two consecutive BBVA Rising Stars teams after being selected by the Thunder with the 12th overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft. Most recently, Presti acquired the second overall pick in the 2013 NBA Draft, Victor Oladipo, also a member of two consecutive BBVA Rising Stars teams.

After moving to Oklahoma City in July of 2008, Presti has stressed the importance of community involvement for both Thunder players and staff. Under his leadership, Thunder players have made more than 1,950 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City. Presti has also made it policy for every new player and staff member to tour the Oklahoma City Memorial and Museum soon after joining the organization.

Under Presti's guidance, the Thunder has advanced to postseason in six of the last seven seasons including five straight years (2010-2014) and at the conclusion 2012-13 season, Oklahoma City became just the second team in NBA history (Boston Celtics; 1955-1960) to increase its winning percentage for five consecutive seasons (while maintaining a winning percentage of .700 or better in two of those seasons). Dating back to the 2011-12 season, the Thunder became Western Conference Champions on the heels of the 2010-11 season in which the Thunder became the youngest team in the prior quarter century to reach the NBA's Western Conference Finals.

During the 2009-10 season, Presti's third year at the helm, Oklahoma City experienced one of the largest turnarounds in NBA history. A year after winning 23 games, the Thunder concluded the 2009-10 season with a 50-32 record (.610) and captured the franchise's first playoff berth in Oklahoma City. The 27-win improvement was tied for the eighth largest improvement in NBA history. Presti was named NBA Executive of the Year by The Sporting News at the conclusion of the season.

Presti has been on the NBA's Instant Replay Committee since 2009 and has served on the league's Competition Committee dating back to the 2011-12 season.

Prior to joining the Thunder, the 39-year-old Presti held a variety of roles with the San Antonio Spurs. After starting in 2000 as a video intern for Gregg Popovich, Presti moved up through the front office ranks in San Antonio before being elevated to the position of Vice President and Assistant General Manager. As a member of the Spurs, Presti was part of NBA Championship teams in 2003, 2005 and 2007, as well as five division titles.

Presti earned his bachelor's degree in 2000 in communications, politics and law and a minor in psychology from Emerson College in Boston, where he was the first Rhodes Scholar nominee in school history. The Concord, Mass. native served as team captain of the Emerson College basketball team during both his junior and senior seasons. In addition, Presti earned All-Academic honors two times and was twice selected to the Great Northeast Athletic Conference All-Tournament team. He was honored with the Emerson College Young Alumnus Award in 2005. Presti has also completed Harvard University's Continuing Education program on leadership and decision making.

Presti currently resides on the board of the Oklahoma City National Memorial and served as chairman of the Oklahoma Standard campaign, a movement built on the foundation of resilience, compassion, consistent acts of honor, service and kindness.

With the support of the Thunder, Presti has established the Forward Thinking Leadership Development Program within the Oklahoma City public schools. Additionally, Presti is actively involved with PeacePlayers International (PPI), a global outreach program focused on bringing children and communities together through the game of basketball. He also serves on the Board of Directors of Shooting Touch, an organization that grants graduating college seniors the opportunity to travel the world and use the platform of basketball to help foster education and influence positive social change in third world global communities.

This past summer, Presti was presented with the Humanitarian Award from the Oklahoma Center for Community and Justice. Presti was recognized as Oklahoma City University's 2012-13 recipient of the Abe Lemons/Paul Hansen Award for Sports Excellence and he also won the Oklahoma March of Dimes Sports Headliner Special Award for 2013.

An accomplished drummer, Presti has produced three music CDs with all proceeds benefiting the Extra Ordinary Needs Fund at Children's Hospital in Boston. Also, Presti established the Keenan Smith-Anthony Halls Scholarship Fund at his former high school, Concord-Carlisle, to assist students with their college tuition.

Presti and his wife, Shannon, have a son, Nicholas Ruben. Shannon continues to serve as the Director of Teen Leadership Initiatives for the YMCA of Greater Oklahoma City.

TROY WEAVER

VICE PRESIDENT / ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Troy Weaver begins his ninth season with Oklahoma City and his seventh as the team's Vice President/Assistant General Manager. Weaver joined the Thunder in May of 2008 and assists General Manager Sam Presti with roster development and day-to-day basketball operations. In addition, he coordinates the team's player personnel matters including NBA Draft preparation, player free agency and summer league roster.

Weaver held the position of director of player personnel for the Utah Jazz in 2007-08. He spent three seasons (2004-07) as head scout for the Jazz before his promotion to director of player personnel.

Prior to joining the Jazz, Weaver was an assistant coach at Syracuse University for four seasons (2000-04). The Orangemen won the 2003 NCAA National Championship led by Weaver recruit Carmelo Anthony. In addition to his experience at Syracuse, Weaver spent time as an assistant coach at New Mexico (1999-2000) and Pittsburgh (1996-99).

Prior to his collegiate coaching days, Weaver amassed an 85-17 record as an AAU coach in Washington, D.C. He guided the DC Assault to the 1996 AAU Tournament of Champions.

Weaver graduated with an associate's degree from Prince George's Community College (MD) in 1991, where he also played one season of basketball.

MICHAEL WINGER

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER & TEAM COUNSEL

The 2016-17 season is Michael Winger's seventh in Oklahoma City. Winger assists Executive Vice President & General Manager Sam Presti on all facets of roster planning, player acquisition, salary cap and strategic management. Winger is chiefly responsible for operational and player acquisition process development, progressive salary cap strategy implementation, tactical CBA application and maneuverability, contract and trade negotiation and preparation, legal and administrative processes and execution.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Winger spent five seasons (2005-06 through 2009-10) in the front office with the Cleveland Cavaliers, earning several promotions during his tenure. Winger began his career in Cleveland as its Basketball Operations Coordinator. Winger was promoted to Basketball Operations Manager / Team Counsel, and shortly thereafter to the Cavaliers' Director of Basketball Operations & Team Counsel. Winger's role in Cleveland was extensive, and included instituting organizational processes and working closely with Cavaliers' management and ownership on all team matters. He joined the Cavaliers in July of 2005 after spending two years working for renowned sports agent and attorney, Ron Shapiro in Baltimore, Maryland.

Originally from Cleveland, Ohio, Winger is a graduate of Miami University (OH) and holds a law degree, having attended both The University of Toledo College of Law and the University of Maryland School of Law.

BILLY DONOVAN

HEAD COACH

Billy Donovan is set to embark on his second season as Thunder head coach after leading Oklahoma City to a 55-win season, a Northwest Division title and a spot in the Western Conference Finals during his first NBA campaign.

By winning 55 games during the 2015-16 season, Donovan became the only first-year NBA head coach in league history to accomplish such a feat after coming directly from the college ranks. Additionally, Donovan became just the third first year head coach in the last 15 years to win 55 or more games during his first season (Kerr & Thibodeau).

After being named head coach on April 30, 2105, Donovan became the third head coach in Thunder history after enjoying an incredibly successful college coaching career that spanned more than two decades.

During the previous 19 years as head coach at the University of Florida, Donovan led the Gators to two National Championships and four trips to the Final Four while amassing a record of 467-186 (.715). During the 2014-15 season, Donovan became the second youngest coach in NCAA history (Bob Knight) to claim 500 wins.

During his tenure at Florida, Donovan led the program to 16 straight 20-win seasons, three 30-win seasons, 17 consecutive trips to the postseason and six SEC Championships. Under Donovan, Florida advanced to the Elite Eight in six of the past 10 seasons.

Donovan concluded his time at Florida with the second most wins for a SEC program (467) in the history of the conference. Additionally, his 35 NCAA tournament wins rank as the most all-time among SEC coaches. Donovan's win total is more than twice that of any other coach in Florida history.

After winning back-to-back national championships (2006 and 2007), Donovan led Florida to 18 straight postseason wins, the longest run for any program since John Wooden led UCLA to 28 straight postseason wins.

Donovan has been the recipient of numerous collegiate coaching awards including ESPN.com's National Coach of the Year (2001), the Wooden Award's "Legends of Coaching" Honor (2010) and SEC Coach of the Year (2011, 2013, 2014).

In addition to his responsibilities at Florida, Donovan has served as head coach of USA Basketball's U18 and U19 National Teams in previous summers. As a head coach with USAB, Donovan's teams have captured three gold medals while going a perfect 19-0 during national team competition. Prior to leading the 2014 FIBA Americas U18 Team to the gold medal last summer in Colorado Springs, CO, Donovan guided the 2013 USA U19 World Championship Team to a perfect 9-0 record and the gold medal in Prague, Czech Republic, and the 2012 USA U18 National Team to a 5-0 slate and gold in Sao Sebastiáo do Paraiso, Brazil.

Donovan's coaching experience dates back to the 1989-90 season where he served as a graduate assistant coach at Kentucky. After five years with the Wildcats, Donovan was hired as head coach at Marshall, where he spent two years before leaving for Florida.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Donovan enjoyed a four-year playing career at Providence where he helped lead the Friars to their best season in school history and a trip to the Final Four in 1987. In addition, Donovan appeared in 44 games as a member of the New York Knicks during the 1987-88 season.

ADRIAN GRIFFIN

ASSISTANT COACH

Adrian Griffin is set to begin his first season with the Thunder after previously serving as assistant coach with the Orlando Magic during the 2015-16 season.

Griffin spent five seasons (2010-15) as an assistant coach with Chicago. During the summer of 2014, he worked with the USA Basketball Men's National Team that captured the gold medal at the FIBA Basketball World Cup. Prior to joining the Bulls, he served as assistant coach/player development for two seasons (2008-10) with Milwaukee.

As a player, Griffin appeared in 477 career NBA games (179 starts) during nine seasons with Boston, Dallas, Houston, Chicago and Seattle, averaging 4.0 points, 3.2 rebounds and 1.4 assists in 16.8 minutes. He also played in 48 career playoff outings, averaging 3.4 points and 3.0 rebounds in 13.2 minutes and helped Dallas reach the 2006 NBA Finals. Griffin also played one season in Italy and three seasons with Connecticut of the CBA. In 1998-99, he was named CBA Most Valuable Player and also earned CBA Finals MVP, leading Connecticut to the league championship.

Born on July 4, 1974 and a native of Wichita, Kansas, Griffin was a three-year starter at Seton Hall University. He has two daughters, Vanessa and Aubrey, and two sons, Alan and Adrian, Jr.

MAURICE CHEEKS

ASSISTANT COACH

Maurice Cheeks is set to begin his second year after returning to the Thunder bench after the start of the 2015-16 season. Cheeks brings more than 30 years of NBA experience to the Thunder bench. Cheeks, who spent four seasons on the Thunder's staff from 2009-2013, returned to Oklahoma City after serving as the head coach of the Detroit Pistons during the 2013-14 season. Overall, Cheeks has amassed a head coaching record of 305-315 (.492) with the Pistons, Philadelphia 76ers and Portland Trail Blazers.

Before joining the Thunder in 2009, Cheeks served as head coach of the 76ers from 2005-2009, amassing a record of 122-147 and securing a playoff appearance in Philadelphia's 2007-08 campaign. Prior to joining the Sixers, Cheeks spent three-plus seasons as head coach of the Portland Trail Blazers (2001-05). During his time in Portland, he posted a 162-139 (.538) mark, accounting for the fourth-highest win total in Blazers coaching history. He helped the Blazers reach the NBA Playoffs twice, and his 2002-03 squad tied for second in the Pacific Division with a 50-32 record.

Preceding his work in Portland, Cheeks spent seven seasons as an assistant coach for the Sixers, working under head coaches John Lucas (1994-96), Johnny Davis (1996-97), and Larry Brown (1997-2001). In 2000-01 under Brown, Cheeks helped guide the 76ers to a record of 56-26 (.683) and a spot in the NBA Finals.

A 15-year NBA veteran, Cheeks retired from the NBA as its all-time leader in steals after playing with Philadelphia, San Antonio, New York, Atlanta and New Jersey. He was selected to the NBA's All-Defensive Team five times (First Team: 1983, 1984, 1985, 1986; Second Team: 1987) and played in four All-Star games (1983, 1986, 1987, 1988). A member of the 76ers' 1983 World Championship team, Cheeks was honored by the club through having his number (10) retired.

As an NBA player, Cheeks compiled career averages of 11.1 ppg, 6.7 apg and 2.1 spg in 1,101 games while shooting .523 from the field and .793 from the free throw line. A native of Chicago, he began his coaching career with the Quad City Thunder of the CBA. In his only season with Quad City, Cheeks helped guide the club to the CBA Championship.

The 1978 West Texas State (currently West Texas A&M) graduate was a four-year starter and three-time MVP in college. He finished his collegiate career third on the Buffs' all-time scoring list, averaging 16.8 points per game while shooting 56.8 percent from the field as a senior. Cheeks was selected in the second round of the 1978 NBA Draft (36th overall by the Sixers).

ANTHONY GRANT

ASSISTANT COACH

Anthony Grant enters his second year on the Thunder bench after spending the previous nine years serving as head coach at the University of Alabama and Virginia Commonwealth University. In nine seasons at Alabama and VCU, Grant compiled a record of 193-110 (.637) at the two schools.

During the past six years at Alabama, Grant amassed a record of 117-85 (.579) while guiding the Crimson Tide to the 2012 NCAA tournament, their first tournament berth since the 2006 season. Alabama also advanced to the NIT tournament on three occasions during Grant's tenure.

In addition to leading Alabama to three straight 20-win campaigns, Grant also led the Tide to a winning record in SEC play for three consecutive seasons (2011-13). It marked the first time since the 1994-1996 seasons that Alabama had compiled three consecutive winning seasons in conference play.

Prior to Alabama, Grant spent three seasons as the head coach of VCU where he led the Rams to a 76-25 (.752) record while winning three consecutive Colonial Athletic Association Championships. Grant's time at VCU was highlighted by a pair of NCAA tournament appearances and a 45-9 (.833) mark in CAA games.

A Miami native, Grant spent 10 years at the University of Florida (1996-2006) where he served under Billy Donovan. Grant helped lead the Gators to their first national title in 2006 before departing for VCU.

Prior to joining the coaching ranks, Grant enjoyed a successful collegiate playing career at the University of Dayton (1983-87). The Flyers went 70-49 (.588), with a pair of NCAA Tournament appearances and one NIT berth during Grant's time in uniform. In 105 games at Dayton, Grant averaged 11.6 points and 6.7 rebounds per game and was named the team's most valuable player as a senior.

MARK BRYANT

ASSISTANT COACH

Mark Bryant is set to enter his tenth season as a Thunder assistant coach. During July of 2012, Bryant served as Head Coach of the Thunder's summer league team.

Prior to joining the Thunder's coaching staff, Bryant served as assistant coach/player development with the Orlando Magic from 2005-07.

Before his time in Orlando, Bryant spent the 2004-05 season with the Dallas Mavericks as a member of its player development staff.

Bryant enjoyed a 15-year playing career as the New Jersey native was a member of 10 different teams during his NBA playing tenure (1988-2003). Originally selected by Portland in the first round (21st pick overall) of the 1988 NBA Draft, Bryant helped the Blazers reach the NBA Finals in 1990 and 1992. He appeared in 797 regular season games during his NBA career with Portland, Houston, Phoenix, Chicago, Cleveland, Dallas, San Antonio, Philadelphia, Denver and Boston, averaging 5.4 ppg and 3.8 rpg in 16.9 mpg. Bryant also appeared in 79 career playoff games, averaging 3.5 ppg and 2.5 rpg in 12.2 mpg.

Bryant was a First Team All-Big East selection as a senior at Seton Hall in 1987-88, averaging 20.5 ppg and 9.1 rpg for the Pirates. The 6-9 forward led the school to it's first-ever berth into the NCAA Tournament.

DARKO RAJAKOVIC

ASSISTANT COACH

Darko Rajakovic enters his fifth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder organization and third as assistant coach. A Serbian native, Rajakovic spent his first two seasons with the organization as head coach of the Tulsa 66ers. Rajakovic became the first head coach born outside of North America in NBA D-League history. The 36-year-old boasts a diverse coaching background with an emphasis in player development.

Rajakovic holds a career NBA D-League record of 51-49. During his two seasons with the 66ers, Tulsa has been assigned seven players from Oklahoma City a total of 50 times (the most in the league during that stretch).

Rajakovic has also seen five of his 66ers players receive NBA GATORADE Call-Ups to the NBA, including four to the Thunder (Grant Jerrett, Daniel Orton, Mustafa Shakur and Reggie Williams). He coached 11 Tulsa players over the past two years who were on an NBA roster in the 2013-14 season.

Prior to joining the 66ers, Rajakovic had spent the previous three years as the head coach of Espacio Torrelodones of the Spanish EBA League.

Rajakovic began his coaching career at 16 years old with BC Borac Cacak in Cacak, Serbia where he coached the club to two national tournaments.

Rajakovic received a basketball coaching degree from the Belgrade Basketball Academy in 2004 and a degree in sports management from BK University in Belgrade in 2006. Rajakovic speaks Serbian, Croatian and Bosnian languages as native, but is also fluent in English, Spanish and basic Greek.

VIN BHAVNANI

ASSISTANT COACH

Vin Bhavnani enters his ninth season with Oklahoma City and his first as an assistant coach. Bhavnani spent his past five years with the Thunder organization as Manager of Advance Scouting/Player Development and his first two years serving as the team's Video Coordinator. Prior to joining the Thunder, Bhavnani spent two seasons with the San Antonio Spurs as the assistant video coordinator. He started his NBA career with the Los Angeles Clippers as an intern in the video department in 2004.

Prior to joining the Clippers, Bhavnani spent one season as an assistant coach for the women's basketball team at Santa Monica Junior College. The Los Angeles, California, native is a 2003 graduate of the University of Southern California.

ROYAL IVEY

ASSISTANT COACH

Royal Ivey is set to begin his first season with the Oklahoma City Thunder as an assistant coach after spending the 2015-16 season as a player development assistant and the 2014-15 season as an assistant coach with the Oklahoma City Blue of the NBA Development League. In his role as a player development assistant, Ivey became the first former Oklahoma City player to join the Thunder's coaching ranks.

During his season with the Blue, Ivey helped guide the team to a 28-22 record and an appearance in the NBA D-League Playoffs.

Ivey enjoyed a 10-year NBA playing career that included 61 appearances as a member of the Oklahoma City Thunder. In 492 career NBA games (114 starts) with Oklahoma City, Atlanta, Milwaukee and Philadelphia, Ivey averaged 3.3 points, 1.1 rebounds and 1.1 assists. Ivey was a member of the Thunder for a combined 208 regular season and playoff games. After playing Oklahoma City in 2010-11 and 2011-12, Ivey most recently joined the Thunder via a 10-day contract during the 2013-14 season.

Ivey was originally selected with the 37th overall pick in the 2004 NBA Draft by the Atlanta Hawks.

Born in New York City, Ivey attended the University of Texas as a four-year starter for the Longhorns basketball team. He holds a bachelor's degree in applied learning and science.

BILLY SCHMIDT

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

Billy Schmidt is set to begin his second season with the Thunder as a quality control coach after spending the past two decades coaching at the collegiate level.

Most recently, Schmidt spent the 2014-15 season at the University of Florida where he served under Billy Donovan as assistant to the head coach.

Before making the move to Gainesville, Schmidt spent the prior three seasons at Georgia Tech and eight seasons at the University of Dayton.

During his tenure at Dayton, Schmidt was named associate head coach prior to the start of the 2009-10 season. This came shortly after Schmidt was voted the Atlantic 10's top assistant coach in a poll of league coaches. During his eight seasons with Dayton, Schmidt helped lead the Flyers to 172 victories, two NCAA Tournament appearances and three NIT berths.

Schmidt moved to Dayton after nine seasons coaching in the SEC, Big East and Big Ten. Schmidt enjoyed a pair of coaching stops under Tommy Amaker at Seaton Hall and Michigan.

Prior to Seton Hall, Schmidt worked under former Kevin O'Neill at Northwestern, where he was an assistant coach from 1997-2000, and at Tennessee from 1994-1997. Schmidt joined the Volunteer staff as an administrative assistant in 1994 and was promoted to an assistant coach in 1996.

A native of Stamford, Conn., Schmidt began his coaching career in the high school ranks, serving as an assistant coach to Steve Smith at Oak Hill Academy in Mouth of Wilson, Virginia, for two years (1992-94). During his tenure, Oak Hill won back-to-back national championships.

Schmidt graduated with honors from Wake Forest in 1992 with a Bachelor of Science degree in secondary education. While at Wake Forest, Schmidt was a manager and coaches' aide for the Demon Deacons program for four years (1988-92). He holds a Master's Degree in Sport Management from the University of Tennessee.

PAUL RIVERS

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Paul Rivers enters his ninth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder and his fourth as the team's Director of Basketball Operations. Prior to assuming his elevated position with the Thunder, Rivers spent the previous three seasons with the club serving as Director of Basketball Administration & Technology.

In his current role with the team, Rivers works closely with various facets of the front office and basketball operations while overseeing both long term and day to day initiatives for the club. Rivers also oversees all aspects of the Thunder technology program and works closely with the Thunder coaching staff and leadership team to keep the organization on the leading edge of technological advances.

The Bloomfield Hills, MI. native was an integral part of the design and construction of the Integris Thunder Development Center in Northeast Oklahoma City. Rivers oversaw the layout design and overall construction of the facility on behalf of the Thunder organization.

Rivers served as a video coordinator with the Detroit Pistons from 2005-07, assisting the coaching staff during practices and games while also handling all of the club's video operations and footage.

Rivers began his NBA career with the San Antonio Spurs as a video coordinator during the 2004-05 season. Prior to joining the Spurs, he spent two years at Michigan State University. Rivers served as video coordinator under head coach Tom Izzo and the men's basketball team in 2003-04, and for the Spartans' women's basketball team during the 2002-03 season.

WILL DAWKINS

DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE PLAYER PERSONNEL

Will Dawkins begins his ninth year with the Thunder organization and his fourth as the team's Director of College Player Personnel. Dawkins first joined the Thunder as a front office intern in the summer of 2008 and has since served as assistant video coordinator and scouting coordinator before assuming his current position. In his current capacity, Dawkins is responsible for overseeing the college and international evaluation departments in preparation for the NBA draft.

A native of Springfield, MA Dawkins led the High School of Commerce to the Division I State Championship, while earning the honor of Western Massachusetts Player of the Year. He went on to graduate from Emerson College with a degree in Broadcast Journalism. While at Emerson he served as captain of the men's basketball team and became a two time Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar.

Dawkins and his wife, Tara currently reside in Edmond.

DR. DONNIE STRACK

DIRECTOR OF MEDICAL SERVICES

Dr. Strack begins his ninth season in Oklahoma City as the Director of Medical Services. He is responsible for leading the medical staff in providing comprehensive, evidence-based services for Thunder players through innovation, research, and integration of multiple health care professionals.

From 2005-2008, Dr. Strack was in private practice as a physical therapist at Orthopaedic Physical Therapy Services in Wellesley Hills, Mass. Dr. Strack graduated with a Doctor of Physical Therapy degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2005. He earned his undergraduate degree from the University of Indianapolis in 2002 and was awarded the Athletic Training Department Performance Award that same year.

Dr. Strack's first role with an NBA team came in the sixth grade as a ball-boy for the Indiana Pacers. He later served as a Graduate Assistant athletic trainer for the Indiana Pacers from 2002-2005. Dr. Strack also served as an athletic trainer during the 2002 World Basketball Championships in Indianapolis and the RCA Tennis Championships in 2001 and 2002.

In 2010, Dr. Strack completed his post doctorate fellowship in manual therapy from Regis University. He is board certified in Orthopaedic Physical Therapy (OCS) by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialties and is a Fellow in the American Academy of Orthopaedic Manual Physical Therapists (FAAOMPT). In addition to being a licensed physical therapist and athletic trainer, he is also a certified strength and conditioning specialist.

Dr. Strack is active in the Oklahoma City community, serving on the Board of Directors for Special CARE, an early intervention and specialized care school serving children with and without special needs. He lives in Edmond with his wife, Sarah, and their 5 children – Ellabeth (9), Anderson (7), Lilajean (6), Evaleigh (3) and Harrison (2).

JOE SHARPE

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Joe Sharpe enters his ninth season as head athletic trainer for the Thunder. Before joining the Thunder organization, Sharpe spent four seasons as head athletic trainer for the Charlotte Bobcats. Prior to Charlotte, Sharpe was the head strength and conditioning coach/assistant athletic trainer with the Minnesota Timberwolves for two seasons, which included the team's Midwest Division title and run to the Western Conference Finals.

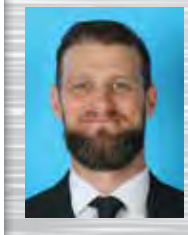
Sharpe has been an active participant in the USA Basketball program dating back to 2002. During the summer of 2012 and 2016, Sharpe won a gold medal while serving as athletic trainer for the men's USA Basketball Olympic team.

During his time with USAB, Sharpe served on staff for one Olympic gold medal and two gold medals at the FIBA World championships. His involvement with USAB dates back more than a decade and includes volunteer service at the Under-18, Under-19, and men's national team levels.

In 2007, Sharpe participated in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders camp held in Johannesburg, South Africa.

Sharpe was previously the head basketball athletic trainer at the University of Connecticut during a nine-year stint with the Huskies that included its 1999 NCAA Championship season.

Joe and his wife, Jennifer, have two children, Joseph and Jayme.



DAVID HOWARTH

ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE COORDINATOR

David Howarth is set to begin his third season with the Thunder where he serves as Athletic Performance Coordinator. In his role with the club, Howarth is responsible for the development and implementation of strength, conditioning and nutritional programs for all Thunder players. In addition, Howarth also arranges offseason training programs and monitors each player's physical progress between seasons.

After concluding his rugby playing career, Howarth worked for the Australian Rugby Union, Northern Suburbs Rugby Union (Sydney), and Surfing Australia as a Strength and Conditioning Coach. Prior to joining the Thunder, Howarth worked in a private practice at Sparta Performance Science in Menlo Park CA, where he trained professional and collegiate athletes and consulted with NFL, MLB, NBA, Division 1 collegiate and Super Rugby clubs.

A native of Sydney, Australia, Howarth earned a Bachelor's degree in Applied Science/ Sport and Exercise Science and completed Post Grad research in biomechanics at the University of Western Sydney.

Howarth resides in Edmond with his wife, Danielle and daughter, Zoe.

BRANDON BARNETT

DIRECTOR OF MINOR LEAGUE OPERATIONS/PRO SCOUT

Brandon Barnett begins his ninth season with the Thunder organization. Barnett oversees the D-League operations for the Blue, including scouting talent, player contracts and working to execute the Thunder system at the D-League level. In 2012, Barnett was also named a pro scout by Oklahoma City, scouting NBA games for the Thunder basketball operations staff in addition to his duties with the Blue.

Barnett joined the organization after working for the NBA League office in New York City for the previous five years. While with the league office, Barnett served most recently as Senior Coordinator of Basketball Operations for the NBA Development League. He joined the D-League during the 2004-05 season as an intern and quickly solidified his value to the Basketball Operations department. Barnett's role in the D-League, among other things, involved evaluating, recruiting and signing players for the league.

A native of Shaker Heights, Ohio, Barnett graduated cum laude from Emerson College in Boston, Mass., in 2003, with a Bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism.

MARC ST. YVES

DIRECTOR OF TEAM OPERATIONS

Marc St. Yves enters his 38th season with the club and his ninth year as the Director of Team Operations. St. Yves previously held the title of equipment manager for 25 years before being promoted in the summer of 2008.

St. Yves is responsible for all team operations including travel, equipment and team events. St. Yves travels fulltime with the team and is responsible for all of the club's logistical needs while on the road. He started his association with the Thunder organization as a 13-year-old ball boy during the team's 1979-80 season in Seattle. Five years later, he was named assistant equipment manager and became the franchise's primary equipment manager in 1985.

Marc and his wife, Karie, have one son Skylar (27). St. Yves hobbies include fly fishing, golf and outdoor pursuits.

BLUE

The Oklahoma City Blue will begin its ninth season as the Thunder's NBA D-League affiliate. Originally purchased in 2008 by the Professional Basketball Club, LLC, the Thunder's development team played its first six seasons as the Tulsa 66ers before being relocated to Oklahoma City in 2014.

The Thunder has displayed a strong history of utilizing its D-League affiliate and developing both players and staff. Since Oklahoma City entered a single-affiliate relationship before the 2008-09 season, the Thunder has assigned a player to its D-league club 102 times – the most assignments by an NBA team during that span. Eighteen different Thunder players have been assigned in the past eight seasons.

Oklahoma City has been active in "calling up" players from its D-League affiliate. The Thunder has called up a player from this club on 12 occasions since 2008 – the most call-ups between associated teams in that stretch.

The Thunder has also utilized its D-League team through developing NBA coaches. The past three coaches of this team have received "call-ups" to the NBA ranks. Darko Rajakovic (2012-14) is an assistant coach with Oklahoma City and Dale Osbourne (2011-12) and Nate Tibbets (2009-11) are both assistants with Portland. This past season, current Head Coach Mark Daigneault was elevated to the Thunder bench on Feb. 17 and the Blue finished the season playing under Jarell Christian.

Throughout last season, Thunder forwards Mitch McGary and Josh Huestis and guard Cameron Payne were assigned to the Blue. Huestis was on assignment for 25 games where he averaged 12.7 points, 5.3 rebounds and 1.4 blocks in 32.0 minutes of play. McGary was assigned for 26 games, averaging 14.7 points, 8.8 rebounds and 1.5 assists in 24.9 minutes while shooting 45.7 percent from the floor. Payne appeared in two games and averaged 23.5 points, 7.0 assists, 3.5 rebounds and 2.0 steals in each game. The Blue also worked in developing non-Thunder-roster players this year with guard Jean-Pierre Tokoto signing with the New York Knicks on Aug. 1.

The Blue will host 24 home games this upcoming season, with 23 games at the Cox Convention Center and a contest across the street at Chesapeake Energy Arena.

MARK DAIGNEAULT

HEAD COACH

Mark Daigneault (DAYG-nalt) returns for his third season as head coach of the Oklahoma City Blue after being elevated to the Thunder bench midway through the 2015-16 season. In his first season at the helm of the Thunder's NBA D-League team, Daigneault led the Blue to a 28-22 record and an appearance in the NBADL Western Conference Semifinals. Under his watch, the Blue had four players called up to NBA rosters (Josh Huestis, Dwight Buycks, Reggie Williams and Jean-Pierre Tokoto) and four Thunder players assigned a combined 37 times (Grant Jerrett, Mitch McGary, Josh Huestis and Cameron Payne).

Daigneault came to Oklahoma City after spending his previous four years working under Billy Donovan at the University of Florida, where he most recently held the position of Assistant to the Head Coach. Throughout his four years at Florida, the Gators totaled a record of 120-30 (.800), won three SEC titles and advanced to the Elite Eight each year. In his final season with UF (2013-14), the Gators became the first SEC team to go 18-0 in conference play and went on to win the SEC Championship and advance to the Final Four.

Prior to his time at Florida, Daigneault spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Holy Cross. During Daigneault's tenure, the Crusaders finished as runner-up of the Patriot League Championship in 2008-09.

A 2007 graduate of the University of Connecticut, Daigneault served as a student manager with the Huskies under Jim Calhoun from 2003-07. While at UCONN, the Huskies won the 2004 NCAA Championship and claimed three Big East titles, posting a combined record of 103-32 (.763). A native of Leominster, Mass., Daigneault holds a master's degree in sports management from the University of Florida.

NBA Cares NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility program that builds on the NBA's mission of addressing important social issues. This season, as part of the 10th anniversary of its creation, NBA Cares is renewing its commitment to communities around the world by inspiring play and teaching basketball's values to more than 15 million youth, providing an additional 3 million hours of hands-on service to others, and leaving a lasting legacy in communities by building 1,000 more safe places to live, learn or play by 2025. NBA Cares works with internationally recognized youth-serving programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes, including: Special Olympics, YMCA of the USA, Boys and Girls Clubs of America, UNICEF, the Make-A-Wish Foundation, Share Our Strength and GLSEN.

Through about 20 annual and ongoing Thunder Cares community programs and additional outreach efforts, the Thunder directly impacts individuals and organizations throughout the state every day of the year. In all, our organization – including players, coaches and staff – has worked with more than 500 community partners since the team started in 2008, benefiting countless individuals.

From schools to shelters, from building homes to honoring heroes, the team's impact on the community is as diverse as our community itself, with one common thread running through all that we do: our fans. Since arriving in Oklahoma City, Thunder players have made more than 1,750 community appearances in and around Oklahoma City.

RUMBLE'S STORY:

For hundreds of years the tale has been told around Native American campfires. A great herd of American bison was lost in the Arbuckle Mountains during a ferocious storm – the kind only Oklahoma can produce.

Hail fell and tornadoes spun all around the herd as they stampeded, trying to find their way down to the safety of the plains.

One lone bison stayed behind as he helped each of his friends escape down a treacherous ravine. Once all of his friends were safe he began his descent only to find his way blocked by fallen boulders.

Lost, he climbed to the tallest peak; left to face the storm alone and searching for a way down the mountain, he was struck by a bolt of lightning.

The bolt did not destroy him, but, by the power of the god of thunder, changed him. Suddenly, he walked on two legs like a man. He possessed amazing strength and agility – he could jump higher, run faster, think more clearly than any beast.

But because he was no longer just a bison – and yet not a man – he was alone.

With many sightings, the legend grew through the years, of a mighty bison, with remarkable powers, roaming the hills alone.

Not until a group of men who carried similar powers came to Oklahoma City did he find somewhere he belonged. These men also possessed the power to jump higher, run faster, and perform acrobatic dunks more spectacular than anyone in the land. They too carried the roar of Thunder every time they took to the court.

So he joined their team. And the new legend of Rumble was born.

CHESAPEAKE ENERGY ARENA

Home to the NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder, Chesapeake Energy Arena also plays host to major concerts, family shows, sporting events and the latest in show-stopping entertainment. While it is managed by SMG, Chesapeake Energy Arena is owned by the City of Oklahoma City and was the premier project of its visionary capital improvement program (MAPS) to finance new and upgraded sports, entertainment, cultural and convention facilities with a one-cent sales tax.

IMPROVEMENTS

Oklahoma City voters overwhelmingly approved a one-cent sales tax in 2008 to fund major upgrades to Chesapeake Energy Arena. A series of renovations to the facility were completed in 2013. Upgrades include new state-of-the-art digital signage, a grand entrance, renovated concourses, new concession and restaurant options, team offices and a kids zone.

LOCATION

Located near two major interstates, Chesapeake Energy Arena sits in the heart of a downtown renaissance, just steps away from the Cox Convention Center, as well as hotels, restaurants and entertainment venues in downtown Oklahoma City and Bricktown.

SEATING CAPACITIES

As a multi-purpose sports and entertainment facility, Chesapeake Energy Arena offers a variety of seating configurations with capacities ranging from less than 4,000 to over 18,000. The spacious 586,000-square-foot arena seats up to:

Basketball:	18,203
Concert (360-degree):	16,591
Concert (180-degree):	11,555
Concert (Theatre Style):	3,613

Accessible seats are available on each level of Chesapeake Energy Arena. The arena has a permanent ice floor, portable insulated flooring system and portable basketball floor to accommodate diverse event configurations. Chesapeake Energy Arena also offers an arena curtaining system with rigging capabilities for maximum flexibility.

SUITES

Suite members enjoy an elevated view of the action and elite privileges from the comfort of a private suite. Suite members enjoy a personal suite attendant for in-suite food and beverage service, perfect for private dining and entertaining guests.

TERRACE SUITES

Our terrace suites serve as an outstanding destination for the best in entertainment, networking, amenities and service. Perched "above the rim" atop Chesapeake Energy Arena's north and south baseline sections, terrace suites offer unparalleled luxury and astounding proximity to the sights, sounds and thrills generated from the action on the floor.

CLUB SEATS

Cox Club Level members enjoy an elevated view of the action, elite privileges and many conveniences offered by our premier facility. These members have exclusive access to the Cox Club Level and its premium restaurants and bars, which are perfect for dining, entertaining and mingling with other club guests.

LOCAL GASTROPUB

Located on the Cox Club Level, the new Local Gastropub offers upscale versions of traditional pub foods, plus a full-service bar with beer, wine and specialty cocktails. Along with the modern atmosphere, the gastropub features HDTVs and digital video boards. Guests can cap off their experience with a trip to the gelato case.

THE COMMONS

The renovated The Commons features a dynamic central bar, upscale bar seating and fresh food options for fans on the Cox Club Level. The space connects the Grand Entrance to the Club Level on the south side of the arena.

COURTSIDE CLUBS AND IN-SEAT SERVICE

Courtside members experience the game in the closest and most personal way possible. In addition to offering unparalleled proximity to the court, courtside memberships come with exclusive access to our premium courtside spaces, the Continental Courtside Club and the Pub, as well as behind-the-scenes views of the action and other exclusive privileges.

THUNDER BOX

Located above Section 305, the Thunder Box offers a unique way to experience events at Chesapeake Energy Arena, perfect for company outings or other group events. With sightlines above all other seats in the arena, this location provides a private, all-inclusive environment, complete with added comfort and amenities not available in other locations.

SKYBOXES AND SUMMIT SPACES

Skyboxes and Summit locations are private suites located above the 300 level, offering a view of every area of the inner bowl. These spaces are available for rent every game night and provide exclusive areas for smaller groups to gather.

OLD NO. 7 CLUB

The Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Club has transformed into a downtown destination for every event at Chesapeake Energy Arena. Guests at this upscale urban bar can enjoy a fun and energetic atmosphere, which transforms from a contemporary bar during game nights to an intimate postgame club. Top-shelf cocktails and premium beer are served alongside an updated menu of light appetizers to complement each guest's beverage of choice.

BUDWEISER BREW HOUSE

The Budweiser Brew House is the largest restaurant in the arena open to all fans attending Thunder games. Located on the southwest side of Chesapeake Energy Arena and just inside the Grand Entrance, Budweiser Brew House is open on all Thunder game nights. For reservations, fans can call 405.601.4459.

CONCESSION STANDS

Chesapeake Energy Arena features numerous concession stands and specialty vendors throughout the facility, offering guests a wide variety of food and beverage choices.

SCOREBOARD

The scoreboard features a total of 10 full-motion video panels, providing an enhanced video and graphics presentation that keeps every fan in the middle of the action. The board also includes an LED ring to display video and text.

PRESS FACILITIES

Media facilities include courtside seating and a working press area, as well as interview areas, dining areas and provisions for TV broadcast.

LOCKER ROOMS

Chesapeake Energy Arena features four locker rooms, including one for the Oklahoma City Thunder and one for visiting NBA teams.

BOX OFFICE

Chesapeake Energy Arena has a full-service box office located near the northeast entrance. For your convenience, the box office is open Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Evening, weekend and holiday hours vary according to the Chesapeake Energy Arena event schedule. For further information or to purchase tickets online, please visit chesapeakearena.com.

EXECUTIVE STAFF

DANNY BARTH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

An NBA executive since 1997, Danny Barth has served in his current position of executive vice president and chief administrative officer of the Oklahoma City Thunder since the team's inaugural season in 2008. In this role, he oversees all aspects of the team's business operations, driving its emphasis on building community partnerships and creating a first-class fan experience.

After overseeing the moving of the franchise's business operations to Oklahoma City, Barth shifted his focus to the team's growth and development, including overseeing the remodeling of Chesapeake Energy Arena to not only meet NBA requirements, but also to provide a strong fan-focused environment. The facility upgrades, which were completed in 2013, included new hospitality areas, enhanced seating and sightlines, modernized common areas and concourses, and the team's permanent corporate office.

Under Barth's leadership, the Thunder has become regarded throughout the industry as a leader in sports business and a model for best practices. Within its first five seasons, the team was recognized by ESPN The Magazine in its Ultimate Standings as the No. 1 professional sports franchise in North America and awarded Sports Team of the Year by the Sports Business Awards, presented by the Sports Business Journal. The national Make-A-Wish Foundation has honored the team with a Chris Greicius Celebrity Award, and Leadership Oklahoma has recognized the team with its Statewide Community Leadership Award.

Prior to his work with the Thunder, Barth served as interim president and CEO for two seasons with the Seattle Supersonics, having previously held positions as chief financial officer, vice president and controller for the team. He began his career with Price Waterhouse LLC, spending six years in the audit division in the corporation's Seattle and New York offices, where he specialized in retail and investment banking.

A graduate of Seattle University, Barth resides with his wife Julie and their two sons in Edmond.

BRIAN M. BYRNES

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, SALES AND MARKETING

Brian Byrnes joined the Thunder organization in April 2005, and developed and executed the strategic sales and marketing efforts to launch business operations in Oklahoma City in 2008. Byrnes' current responsibilities include oversight of ticket sales, retention and operations; luxury suite sales and hospitality; marketing and communications strategies such as brand management, advertising, promotions, graphic design, digital media, e-commerce and event presentation.

Capitalizing on the unique platform of being Oklahoma's first permanent major-league sports team, Byrnes continues to foster programming that extends the reach of the Thunder brand to fans throughout the region. Initiatives such as Thunder Alley and the Thunder Rewards Zone make the game-day experience accessible to all Thunder fans visiting Chesapeake Energy Arena. Year-round, the Blue Alliance connects local fans in towns across Oklahoma, while the OG&E ThunderBolt brings an interactive Thunder experience to regional fairs and neighborhood celebrations.

Previously, Byrnes served as executive vice president of business operations for the NHL's Phoenix Coyotes, guiding the organization through a rebranding that included a new corporate identity, logos and team uniforms. Prior to joining the Coyotes, Byrnes built nearly 10 years of experience with the NHL's Dallas Stars and MLB's Texas Rangers.

Byrnes is actively involved in the Thunder Cares Foundation, Allied Arts, Leadership Oklahoma City, the National Sports Forum and the Greater Oklahoma City Sports Consortium. A graduate of St. Mary's University in San Antonio, Byrnes and his wife Ashley reside with their three children in Edmond.

PETE WINEMILLER

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, GUEST RELATIONS

An NBA franchise executive since 1995, Pete Winemiller currently serves as senior vice president of Guest Relations for the Thunder.

Winemiller is charged with creating repeat customers in a business environment where you cannot control the level of success on the basketball court (the purchased product), but you can control what happens in the stands (the customer experience).

In 2008 Winemiller and his staff led the implementation of a results-producing customer service program leading into the inaugural season for the Thunder, during what former NBA Commissioner David Stern called "the most compressed beginning ever in professional sports."

The Thunder was recognized in 2014 by the Customer Experience Professionals Association as a winner of its CX Innovation Award, which recognizes organizations implementing new practices that improve customer experience, resulting in strong business impact. The team also received the 2014 All-Star Award from the National Customer Service Association. The Thunder has previously been honored by the American Business Awards as Front-Line Customer Service Team of the Year in 2012 and as a Gold Award winner in the Customer Experience Excellence category of the Gartner & 1to1 Media CRM Excellence Awards.

Winemiller has been a keynote speaker and featured presenter at numerous customer service conferences throughout the country. He has served as adjunct professor at both Arizona State University and the University of Washington, sharing his business perspective with undergraduate students, graduate students and business executives.

Winemiller was selected in 2013 as Chief Customer Officer of the Year by the Chief Customer Officer Council. A graduate of Washington State University, he is an alumnus of the Disney Institute in Orlando, Fla., and the Ritz-Carlton Leadership Center in Chevy Chase, Maryland. He received his professional certification in Customer Experience Management in 2010. He is a member of the Make-A-Wish Oklahoma board of directors and serves on the Junior League of Oklahoma City advisory board.

CHRISTINE BERNEY

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNITY RELATIONS AND EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR, THUNDER CARES FOUNDATION

Christine Berney joined the Oklahoma City Thunder in 2008 and currently serves as vice president of Community Relations and executive director of the Thunder Cares Foundation.

During her tenure, Berney has helped establish the Thunder as a leader in the Oklahoma City community and as a partner with nonprofits across the state. She oversees the many ongoing community outreach programs and events the Thunder runs, as well as the Thunder Cares Foundation, which focuses on building and refurbishing community basketball courts across Oklahoma.

Berney's professional background includes public relations and community relations positions in both the corporate and nonprofit sectors. Originally from California, Berney earned her B.A. in English from Oregon State University and her M.F.A. in Creative Writing from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst.

TONY DRISCOLL

VICE PRESIDENT, BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Tony Driscoll serves the Thunder organization as vice president of Business Development, having joined the team in 2012. He leads the organization's efforts to foster relationships with existing business partners and to expand sponsorship opportunities.

Driscoll previously worked as vice president of sales and business development for the National Hot Rod Association (NHRA), headquartering out of Charlotte for the California-based organization.

Prior to that, he worked in several roles with the International Speedway Corporation (ISC), which owns and/or operates 13 NASCAR racetracks around the country. Over the course of 10 years with ISC, Driscoll rose to the position of senior director of partnership and integrated media sales, where he successfully developed and executed an expansive strategy to cultivate new partners, renew existing sponsorships and integrate sales for numerous media outlets into the organization's corporate sales unit.

Driscoll is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti, Michigan.

SCOTT LOFT

VICE PRESIDENT, TICKET SALES, RETENTION AND DATABASE OPERATIONS

Scott Loft is an industry veteran with more than 25 years of professional sports leadership experience in the National Football League, National Hockey League and National Basketball Association.

Loft joined the Thunder in 2010 after three seasons with the Miami Dolphins and is responsible for the Thunder's overall strategy and tactics for all ticket sales, retention and database operations including season ticket sales, group ticket sales, executive suites and Club Level memberships.

Loft's sports career started with the NBA's Philadelphia 76ers, where he spent nine seasons, culminating as the director of ticket sales. After his stint with the NBA, Loft became one of the first employees with the NHL's expansion Nashville Predators, where his ticket sales team became the first NHL or NBA franchise to qualify for expansion by selling more than 12,000 season tickets before the NHL franchise was awarded to the city of Nashville.

After five seasons in the NHL, Loft joined the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars as executive director of ticket sales and marketing. Loft was chosen to be the Jaguars' sole attendee at the inaugural NFL Management Program at Stanford during the 2003 season, and his five years in Jacksonville were highlighted by the local oversight of the ticketing functions for Super Bowl XXXIX, which was played in Jacksonville in 2005. Loft then continued his NFL career with the Miami Dolphins, where he stayed until he joined the Thunder.

Prior to his career in sports, Loft received his undergraduate degree from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana, and his master's degree from Temple University in Philadelphia. Loft currently lives in Edmond with his wife Cathy; their son, Josh, attends the University of Oklahoma.

DAN MAHONEY

VICE PRESIDENT, BROADCASTING AND CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

Dan Mahoney joined the Oklahoma City Thunder in August 2008. In his role of vice president of Broadcasting and Corporate Communications, he oversees the Thunder business public relations efforts, website (okcthunder.com) and broadcasting operations.

Previously Mahoney served as a public relations consultant for the Professional Basketball Club, LLC and the New Orleans Hornets. From 1995-2003 he was director of communications for Oklahoma Governor Frank Keating. He later worked with Gov. Keating as senior vice president of communications and public affairs at the American Council of Life Insurers in Washington, D.C.

Consulting with Gooden Group of Edmond, Okla., Mahoney coordinated public relations efforts for the Skirvin Hilton Hotel, a historic Oklahoma City landmark which reopened in 2007 after being closed for 18 years. He also assisted the Hornets during their relocation and two-year stay in Oklahoma City from 2005-07.

As director of communications for Gov. Keating, Mahoney was responsible for public information coordination for the State of Oklahoma and the Governor's office. That included public information efforts during the 1995 bombing of the Murrah Federal Building in Oklahoma City. Following that tragedy, he consulted for businesses and other government agencies on crisis communications.

Mahoney spent 18 years in radio and television as a news director, news reporter and sportscaster in Richmond, Va.; Albuquerque, N.M.; and Oklahoma City. He is a native of Philadelphia and attended Virginia Commonwealth University and the University of New Mexico.

Mahoney served on the 20-year anniversary committee for the Oklahoma City National Memorial. He has two adult daughters who live in New York City.

KATY SEMTNER

VICE PRESIDENT, HUMAN RESOURCES

Katy Semtner joined the Oklahoma City franchise in January 2003. She serves as the team's vice president of Human Resources. Semtner's responsibilities include oversight of payroll, benefits, employee relations, recruitment, selection, orientation, performance management, compensation, policy creation, employment-law compliance and employee development.

Prior to joining the franchise, Semtner worked in human resources in the hospitality and nonprofit industries. She is a certified Senior Professional in Human Resources.

Semtner is a member of the Society for Human Resources Management, the Oklahoma City Human Resources Society and EWF International. The Seattle native is a graduate of the University of California at San Diego and an alumna of Leadership Oklahoma City.

STACY BLOMSTROM

CONTROLLER

Stacy Blomstrom began with the Thunder in 2009 as the organization's assistant controller, moving into her current position in 2012. Prior to working for the Thunder, Blomstrom was controller for a set of five LLCs at CNI (Chickasaw Nation Industries) in Norman.

Previously, she served as CFO for the Moore Medical Center and as the director of finance/operations at Eagle Ridge Institute, a nonprofit social-service agency.

Blomstrom earned her Bachelor of Science degree in accounting from Regis University in Denver in 2001. A native of Colorado, she spent 14 years working with healthcare organizations in that state before moving to Oklahoma in 2003.

JIM BRYLEWSKI

DIRECTOR, DEVELOPMENT TEAM BUSINESS OPERATIONS

Jim Brylewski has served with the Thunder NBA D-League team since 2008 and currently leads business operations for the Oklahoma City Blue. Brylewski, a graduate of Michigan State University, previously worked with the Youngstown SteelHounds of the Central Hockey League as assistant general manager.

Previous to Youngstown, Brylewski worked with the San Jose Sharks organization, serving as vice president of marketing and sales for the Cleveland Barons AHL franchise and assisting the Sharks organization in the relocation of the Barons business operations to Worcester, Massachusetts.

Brylewski began his career in 1988 as an event promotions supervisor with the Detroit Tigers. From 1996-2000 he served as the advertising and promotions manager with the Baltimore Orioles, when the team set franchise records in attendance and corporate sales revenue. In his final season with the Orioles, Brylewski was also responsible for the day-to-day operations of the team's ballpark entertainment, most notably the planning and scripting of Cal Ripken's 3,000-hit ceremony.

JODY EAST

DIRECTOR, CORPORATE HOSPITALITY

Jody East was born and raised in Miami, Oklahoma. She is a graduate of Oklahoma State University, where she earned her Bachelor of Human Environmental Sciences, a degree in hotel and restaurant administration. Jody began her career at the then-named Ford Center, where she managed executive suites for three years until being recruited by the New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets. After a taste of the NBA, East was hooked and has been a proud member of the Oklahoma City Thunder organization since 2008.

In her current role, she is directly responsible for the department that manages all Thunder game-night hospitality areas, as well as providing additional services for staff and external-group events. East also oversees renovation enhancements to in-arena premium areas and owner relations.

East has lived in the Oklahoma City area since 2003 and currently resides in Edmond.

KARINA HENDERSON

DIRECTOR, CORPORATE COMMUNICATIONS

Karina Henderson joined the Thunder in 2011 and currently serves as Director, Corporate Communications, providing a consistent and creative voice across social media, email, media outreach and all other fan-engagement platforms.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Henderson worked for several years in Oklahoma state politics and government, including with the state House of Representatives and the Insurance Department.

A native of Wisconsin, Henderson attended the University of Pennsylvania, graduating with a political science degree. She moved to Oklahoma to marry her husband, Brady, a local attorney and native of Enid. The couple resides in Oklahoma City with their two children.

TRAVIS HERMAN

DIRECTOR, TICKET AND PREMIUM SALES

Travis Herman has been with the Oklahoma City franchise since 2001, taking on his current title as director of Ticket and Premium Sales in 2011. In this role, he is responsible for the development, implementation and execution of all sales strategies in order to maximize the generation of ticket and premium revenue for both the Oklahoma City Thunder and the Oklahoma City Blue franchises.

Originally from Hays, Kansas, Travis earned his degree in finance from Kansas State University in the fall of 2001.

KARLIS KEZBERS

DIRECTOR, BUSINESS INTELLIGENCE AND TICKET STRATEGY

Karlis Kezbers joined the Thunder in September 2008 and currently serves as the team's director of Business Intelligence and Ticket Strategy. The Bloomington, Minnesota, native grew up in Oklahoma City and graduated from the University of Oklahoma in 2004. Upon graduating, he joined the sales and retention team for the NBA's Phoenix Suns. After four seasons with the Suns, Kezbers jumped at the opportunity to help build a franchise in his hometown.

In his time at the Thunder, Kezbers has overseen season ticket retention, premium service, ticket operations and the newly developed business analytics team. In his current role, Karlis takes the lead on the development and management of the team's CRM platform and database warehouse strategy. Kezbers, his wife Emily and their daughter Brynn reside in Edmond.

TYLER LANE

DIRECTOR, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Tyler Lane joined the Thunder in 2009 as director of Information Technology. Lane began his career in the U.S. Navy as an aviation electronics technician, maintaining radar systems on F/A-18 Hornets and serving aboard the USS Nimitz. He later held several IT positions at the University of Oklahoma, including within the Athletics department and the College of Engineering.

Lane earned his bachelor's in aviation management from Southeastern Oklahoma State University, as well as an MBA from the University of Oklahoma. He and his wife Alisa reside in Norman with their sons, Ben and Jack.

JOHN LEACH

DIRECTOR, EVENTS AND ENTERTAINMENT

John Leach joined the franchise in 2007 as the director of Events and Entertainment. Leach began his career as an on-air personality in radio for eight years in both Houston and San Diego. He was hired full-time by the Houston Rockets in 2000 in their Game Operations department.

Prior to joining the Rockets full-time, Leach was responsible for game music in Houston during their championship seasons in 1994 and 1995, and actually has a ring to prove it. He helped move the Rockets into the new Toyota Center and played an integral role in creating a new interactive NBA experience with a variety of performance teams – including drummers, breakdancers and tumblers – that were all part of the Rockets' branded game-night entertainment.

Leach was recruited by the then Charlotte Bobcats to start the game presentation/entertainment department when Charlotte was awarded a franchise in 2004. Looking at his current position, Leach notes how exciting it is to produce an NBA experience for the enthusiastic Thunder fans.

RON MATTHEWS

DIRECTOR, INTERACTIVE MEDIA AND PUBLICATIONS

Ron Matthews joined the Oklahoma City franchise in 2006 as the director of Interactive Media and Publications. Matthews oversees the team website (okcthunder.com), mobile apps (Oklahoma City Thunder, Thunder Plus) and publications (Game Night program, Thunder Magazine and the annual Thunder Cares report). He is active in developing content across all platforms – online, print, video and photography.

Prior to joining the club, Matthews was sports editor at the Seattle Post-Intelligencer. He was named to that position in 2001, following five years as the assistant sports editor. He held similar positions at various newspapers in California, New York, Washington, Vermont and Utah.

Matthews graduated from Oregon State University in 1985 with a degree in journalism.

ABBY MORGAN

DIRECTOR, PARTNERSHIP ACTIVATION

Abby Morgan began with the Thunder in 2008 as a senior account services manager, taking on her current role as director of Partnership Activation in 2010. In her current role, she is responsible for the management of corporate partnership fulfillment and its activation staff.

Before her move to the Thunder, Morgan was the corporate promotions and events manager for the Dallas Mavericks. From 2005 to 2007, she served as corporate partnerships marketing manager for the New Orleans/Oklahoma City Hornets. Prior to beginning her NBA career, Morgan was a special assistant to the Oklahoma State men's basketball coaching staff.

Born in Stillwater, Morgan graduated from Oklahoma State University with a bachelor's and an MBA.

CHRIS SORRELS

DIRECTOR, SEASON TICKET RETENTION AND PREMIUM SERVICES

Chris Sorrels serves the Thunder organization as Director, Season Ticket Retention and Premium Account Services, having joined the team in 2009. He leads the organization's efforts to build and foster relationships with existing Season Ticket Members and to deliver an unparalleled professional sports experience through proactive, customized service.

Sorrels had previously worked as the inside sales manager and customer account manager for the Frisco Roughriders, AA baseball team for the Texas Rangers.

Prior to that, he worked for the Coppell Copperheads of the Texas Collegiate League where he directed the day-to-day operations of the ball club as the team's general manager.

Prior to his career in sports, Sorrels received his undergraduate degree from Oklahoma State University and his master's degree from the University of North Texas. Sorrels and his wife, Jennifer, reside with their three children in Edmond.

DAWN TUNER

DIRECTOR, MARKETING AND BRAND MANAGEMENT

Dawn Turner joined the Thunder in 2014 as director of Marketing and Brand Management, leading the team that is responsible for all of the graphic design, advertising, brand promotions, segment marketing and merchandising for the club.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Turner spent seven years in entertainment and sports marketing for American Airlines. Her primary duties involved overseeing all entertainment properties, including American Airlines Center in Dallas, American Airlines Arena in Miami, major-league sports teams and product integration for TV and motion pictures.

Turner previously served as director of Corporate Communications and Community Relations for the Dallas Mavericks. She began her career as media director with the Professional Bowlers Association (PBA Tour).

Born and raised in Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, Turner holds a bachelor's degree in sports medicine from the University of Akron and a master's in sport administration from Kent State University. She currently resides in Edmond with her husband, Kevin, and their children, Siri and Finn.

MATTHEW WELLS

DIRECTOR, BROADCAST PRODUCTION

Matthew Wells joined the Thunder during the team's first season in Oklahoma City, being named director of Broadcast Production in 2013. When he joined the team, Wells brought with him a decade of experience in TV journalism. He previously worked in local news at OETA and KWTV-News 9 in Oklahoma City, after starting his career as a sports anchor/reporter with KXII in Sherman, Texas.

Wells has earned wide recognition for his work as a storyteller, photographer and editor, including being a-part of a four-time Emmy award winning team for his contributions in Live Sports Broadcasting.

A Texas native, Wells graduated in Journalism/Communications from Stephen F. Austin State University in Nacogdoches, Texas, where he also played as a walk-on for the Lumberjack football team. He now calls Oklahoma his home, along with his wife, Kelly, and three children, Spencer, Maggie and Evan.

KATRINA WILEY

DIRECTOR, HUMAN RESOURCES

Katrina Wiley joined the franchise in 2006 and has been a proud member of the Thunder organization since the team's first season. A native of the Northwest, Wiley came to the team with over 10 years of experience in human resources and payroll, including seven years with a Seattle-based property management company.

In her current role, Wiley directs HR and payroll for the Oklahoma City Thunder and the Oklahoma City Blue, the team's NBA Development League franchise. Her primary areas of focus include employee onboarding and orientation programs, the Thunder internship program, employee events and recognition, recruiting and employee relations.

Wiley is a graduate of UCO with a major in Human Resource Management. She currently serves as a mentor in UCO's 2BLeaders program. She and her husband, David, reside in Edmond.

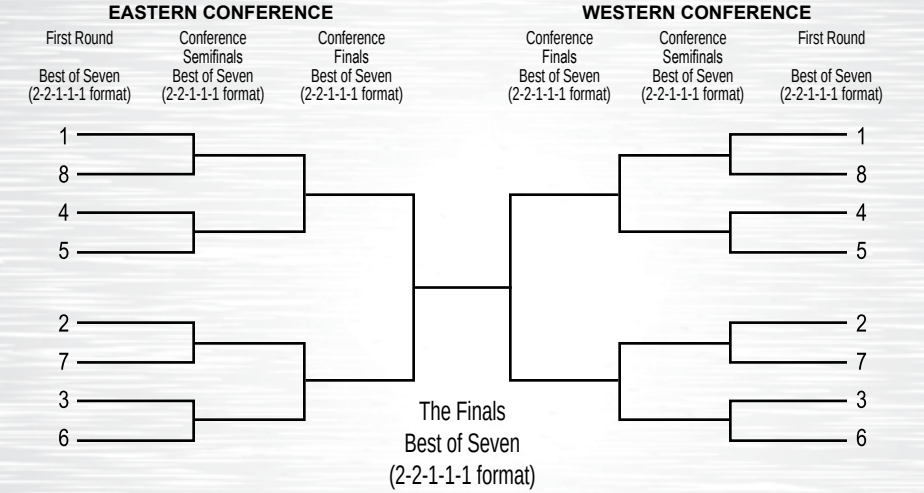
NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE/ATTENDANCE

2017 NBA PLAYOFF STRUCTURE



Eight teams from each conference qualify for the NBA Playoffs. The three division winners and the team with the next-best record from each conference will receive the top four seeds and will be ranked Nos. 1-4 according to their regular-season records. The remaining four teams in each conference will be seeded 5-8 according to their won-lost records. In each round of the playoffs, the team with the better regular-season won-lost record gets the home-court advantage.

All rounds of the playoffs are a best-of-seven series. Each best-of-seven series will play 2-2-1-1-1 format.

MEDIA INFORMATION

BRIAN DAVIS

THUNDER BROADCASTER

Brian Davis is entering his ninth season as the television voice for the Oklahoma City Thunder. He serves as part of a Thunder broadcasting team on FOX Sports Oklahoma that has been awarded four regional Heartland Emmy Awards since 2008.

A veteran basketball broadcaster, Davis returned to the NBA in 2004 as host of Seattle Sonics broadcasts. He regularly covered the Chicago Bulls during the Michael Jordan era and became a contributor to NBA Radio, hosting game broadcasts and serving as sideline reporter for the network during the Playoffs, including the NBA Finals. He later hosted Bulls broadcasts on FSN Chicago and occasionally called Sonics games in Seattle. He has an extensive play-by-play resume at the college level, including the Big Ten, Pac-10, Conference USA and the Mid-American Conference.

Davis has called games at the professional level in three other sports: football, as radio voice of the Seattle Seahawks; hockey, in a reserve role with Chicago Blackhawks; and soccer, with Major League Soccer's Chicago Fire. He has also worked as a preseason play-by-play announcer for the NFL's Arizona Cardinals.

As a sports anchor for CBS Radio and its Chicago all-news affiliate, Davis covered major events including the Olympics, NBA Finals and Stanley Cup Finals. His resume includes play-by-play on national college football broadcasts for Westwood One Radio. He is an accomplished interviewer and talk show host and has won several professional awards, including one for investigative journalism during his days as a news reporter in Chicago.

Davis holds a journalism degree from Northwestern University. He and his wife, Judy, have two adult children and make their home in Oklahoma City.

MICHAEL CAGE

THUNDER TELEVISION ANALYST

Michael Cage joined the Thunder broadcasting team in 2014 as its television analyst for all FOX Sports Oklahoma broadcasts.

Cage played 15 seasons from 1984-2000 as a power forward in the NBA with the Los Angeles Clippers, Seattle Supersonics, Cleveland Cavaliers, Philadelphia 76ers and New Jersey Nets. He led the NBA in rebounding in 1988, capturing the title by grabbing 30 rebounds in the final game of the regular season.

A native of West Memphis, Arkansas, Cage was a first-round draft pick of the Clippers in 1984 following a successful career at San Diego State University. At SDSU he was named a second-team All-American in 1984 and twice was selected as Western Athletic Conference Player of the Year. The Aztecs retired his jersey (No. 44) in 1984. He was also a member of the gold-medal winning 1983 United States team in the Pan American Games, and he is a member of both the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the San Diego State Hall of Fame.

Following his playing career, Cage has worked as both a broadcaster and a high school and AAU basketball coach. His broadcasting experience includes serving as TV analyst for the Memphis Grizzlies, FOX Sports West, ESPN, Prime Ticket and Westwood One radio. Cage coached Mater Dei High School in Los Angeles to back-to-back state titles in 2013-14 and a national championship in 2014. He also served as a guest coach for the Cleveland Cavaliers at the 2013 NBA Summer League in Las Vegas.

Cage has a long history of giving back to the community during and after his NBA playing career. The Michael Cage Foundation works with young athletes to mentor, teach and share life lessons.

LESLEY MCCASLIN

THUNDER BROADCAST HOST AND SIDELINE REPORTER

Lesley McCaslin joined the Thunder in 2012 and serves as the team's broadcast host and sideline reporter on FOX Sports Oklahoma.

McCaslin came to the Thunder from Dallas, where she has worked as an anchor and reporter on FOX Sports Southwest, covering the Dallas Mavericks, Texas Rangers, and Big 12 and Conference USA football. Her career also includes Texas high school football broadcasts and local TV sports reporting in Texas markets Austin and Abilene. She grew up in Lubbock, Texas, and graduated from the University of Texas at Austin. In addition to her duties with the Thunder, she covers college football as a sideline reporter for FOX Sports.

In her current role, McCaslin anchors the team's pregame and postgame "Thunder Live" programs, provides courtside reports during the game broadcasts and is a frequent video contributor to the team website, okcthunder.com, covering Thunder Basketball and community events

MATT PINTO

THUNDER RADIO BROADCASTER

Oklahoma City Thunder radio broadcaster Matt Pinto is a veteran NBA play-by-play announcer who has been with the franchise since 2007.

Prior to joining the franchise, Pinto was in Los Angeles, where he has served as the radio voice of the NBA's Clippers for two seasons. From 1997-2005, Pinto was on the Dallas Mavericks' broadcast team, serving as the radio play-by-play voice from 1997-2001 and the television voice from 2001-05. While in Dallas, Pinto also worked as a talk show host for KESN radio and was the play-by-play announcer of the NCAA Division IAA regional game of the week for The Football Network. In 1997, Pinto was named best play-by-play announcer for the state of Texas by the Associated Press.

From 1990-97, Pinto was the radio play-by-play voice of the NBA's Charlotte Hornets, where he was recognized in 1992 as the Premier Sportscaster in North Carolina by the Charlotte Observer. Pinto was also the television play-by-play voice of UNC-Charlotte basketball games and was an occasional host of ESPN national sports talk shows, as well as serving as the play-by-play voice of Westwood One college basketball.

Before joining the NBA ranks, Pinto worked in the sports broadcasting field in Honolulu, Boston, Los Angeles and Amarillo, Texas.

During his time with the Thunder, Pinto has been twice honored with a Heartland Regional Emmy Award for his contributions to Oklahoma City Thunder telecasts. The broadcaster has four children, Tamara, Daryl, Nash and Gabriela.

ELENO ORNELAS

THUNDER SPANISH RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Eleno Ornelas joined the Thunder in 2009 as the Spanish radio play-by-play announcer, calling all Thunder home games.

Ornelas also serves as the Texas Rangers coordinator of Spanish broadcasting and the play-by-play announcer for all Rangers Spanish radio broadcasts. He joined the Rangers Spanish radio broadcast team in 2000, contributing both play-by-play and analysis before becoming the full-time play-by-play announcer in 2003. He has done radio play-by-play for the Dallas Mavericks and covered the Dallas Cowboys.

Ornelas, is a native of Juarez, Mexico and was a professional baseball announcer in that country before coming to Texas. He has an extensive background as an administrator in the Mexican amateur baseball leagues in north Texas, serving as president of the Dallas League from 1993-98.

MATT TUMBLESON

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS

Matt Tumbleson begins his sixth season as the Thunder's Director of Basketball Communications. Tumbleson and the Basketball Communications staff are responsible for promoting the endeavors of the Thunder players, coaches and front office staff both on and off the court. He is also responsible for managing the day-to-day requests from local, national and international media.

Prior to joining the Thunder, Tumbleson served three-plus years as the primary media contact for the Memphis Grizzlies for all business operations, FedExForum and team content away from the court. During the 2010-11 season, Tumbleson took over all team on-court communications initiatives in addition to his previous responsibilities as the Senior Manager of Communications and Publications. Before his stint in Memphis, the Illinois native worked on the team side of communications for the New Jersey Nets and San Antonio Spurs. During the 2005-06 season, Tumbleson worked for both the Spurs media relations and basketball operations department.

Matt resides in Edmond with his wife, Christina and their three children, Teddy, Audrey and Liv.

MICHAEL RAVINA

MANAGER OF BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS

Michael Ravina enters his ninth season with the club as Manager of Basketball Communications. The San Rafael, CA native came to Oklahoma City after spending the previous three seasons with the Golden State Warriors Public Relations department.

In his current role, Ravina will serve as a liaison between the Thunder and local, national and international media. Additionally, Ravina assists in the teams credentialing process, and share duties associated with team travel.

Ravina is a 2005 graduate of Syracuse University with a degree in Communications and Rhetorical Studies and a minor in Spanish Language, Literature and Linguistics.

He and his wife, Laci, reside in Oklahoma City with their daughter, Gia.

JOHN READ

MANAGER OF BASKETBALL COMMUNICATIONS

John Read enters his ninth season with the Oklahoma City Thunder after joining the organization in March of 2009. The Mission Viejo, CA native is a 2006 graduate of Loyola Marymount University with a degree in Business Finance.

Read joined the Thunder after starting the 2008-09 NBA season with the Dallas Mavericks front office. His NBA experience dates back to 2004 when he began working as an intern with the Los Angeles Lakers Public Relations Department.

The following information has been established to assist in your coverage of the Oklahoma City Thunder and to provide a professional working environment for all members of the media.

PR HOTLINE
405-208-4801

The Oklahoma City Thunder PR Hotline is updated daily with practice times, shoot-around times and media availability times.

CHESAPEAKE ENERGY ARENA is located in downtown Oklahoma City at the corner of Reno Avenue and Robinson Avenue. Chesapeake Energy Arena sits in the heart of a downtown renaissance, just steps away from the Cox Convention Center, as well as hotels, restaurants and entertainment venues in downtown Oklahoma City and Bricktown.

PARKING is available on a limited basis and can be requested by calling the Basketball Communications Department. Please confirm your credential and parking spot prior to arriving at the game. Media parking is located in the Cox Convention Center parking garage located just north of the Chesapeake Energy Arena. Media with confirmed parking should enter the Cox Center parking garage off Robinson street just north of Reno.

TELEPHONES are provided in the media workroom and, on a limited basis, courtside. A request for a dedicated phone line can be made by calling the public relations department 24 hours prior to tip-off.

MEDIA SEATING is located on the scorer's table, the second row scorer's table, setion 116 and section 103. Media seats will be assigned by the Basketball Communications department and we ask that you please do not switch assigned seats without prior approval from the Basketball Communications department. Seating charts can be found in the media workroom.

MEDIA DINING is provided to working media and will be served in the media dining area 3 hours prior to tip-off on game day.

PHOTOGRAPHERS can find photo charts with their assigned spots in the media workroom. All lanes are assigned and photographers cannot switch assigned lanes without approval from a member of the Basketball Communications department. Please be considerate of fans seated directly behind you. For the safety of players, and in accordance with league rules, rubber lenses must be used and photographers are not allowed on the floor at anytime during the game. Remote cameras and tripods are not allowed on the floor. Use of a flash bulb is prohibited. PHOTOGRAPHERS ARE PROHIBITED TO SHOOT FROM THE GRANDSTAND AREA WITHOUT PRIOR APPROVAL FROM THE PUBLIC RELATIONS DEPARTMENT.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS requiring special accommodations should be made in advance by contacting the public relations department. For player and coach interview requests, please contact Matt Tumbleson at mtumbleson@okcthunder.com.

GAME NOTES AND STATISTICS are available in the media room two hours before each game, during the game and after the game. Statistics are distributed to the media seating areas after each quarter. Statisticians for radio and television broadcasts can be arranged by contacting the basketball communications department.

INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center

The Oklahoma City Thunder began calling the INTEGRIS Thunder Development Center home just prior to the start of the 2011-12 season. The 53,000 square foot state-of-the-art practice facility features two full-sized basketball courts, a 27-seat team classroom and a hydrotherapy area which was designed to benefit the Thunder's medical and training staff in the prevention and rehabilitation of injuries.

Funding for the construction of the practice facility and renovations to the team's Chesapeake Energy Arena comes from a one-cent sales tax approved by Oklahoma City voters on March 4, 2008. The 15-month tax took effect on January 1, 2009 and ran through March 31, 2010. As part of the lease agreement, the Thunder will make an annual rent payment to the City of Oklahoma City.

During the groundbreaking ceremony in August of 2009, Oklahoma City Mayor Mick Cornett commented, "Having the Thunder in Oklahoma City has been a tremendous sense of pride for our community. When the citizens of Oklahoma City passed the Big League City initiative to renovate the city's downtown arena and build an NBA-leading practice facility, we all looked forward to this day."

INTEGRIS is the official health care provider of the Oklahoma City Thunder.
